

Alfred Joseph Boggs, beloved Husband, Father, Grandfather and Helpful Friend to many, peacefully entered his heavenly home at the age of 73 after a valiant and dignified battle with cancer.

Born on March 24, 1940 to farming parents Daniel O. Boggs and Catherine A. Boggs (Miller) of Aitkin, MN. He evermore loved “the land” and expressed this through his many beautiful gardens throughout his lifetime. He also loved tennis, fishing, bird watching and RV vacations to most parts of the USA. He loved to see how people lived and to enjoy the beauty of our wonderful country. Toiling was his fun. He deservedly took pride in the two houses he built ... much of the work done by his own hands.

He earned Bachelors and Masters degrees in chemistry, math and physics. With these he became an airplane builder, a math and chemistry teacher, and an Assistant Director at #916 Vocational Technical College in White Bear Lake, MN. He retired in Rockport, TX where he had lived for the past 10 years.

He is survived by his wife of 46 years, Polly Boggs (Makulec) of Rockport, TX, his daughter Kathryn Keroff of St. Louis, MO, his daughter Joanne of Canton, SD, and his son David of Orange City, IA; His sister Josephine Larson of Wilmar, MN and sister Margaret Aydt of St. Cloud, MN.

Memorial Service will be held Monday, April 29, 2013 10:00 a.m. at Sacred Heart Parish Activity Center, 213 S. Church St., Rockport. Later in the summer, a memorial service and interment will be held at Our Lady of the Pines in Nevis, MN.

Arrangements entrusted to Charlie Marshall Funeral Homes & Crematory, Inc.
