Wayne's Obituary

Wayne L. Campbell, 76, of Middletown, DE passed away on Sunday, December 5, 2021, at Newark Manor Nursing Home.

He was born on April 12, 1945, in Erwin, Tennessee. He met the love of his life, Brenda in 1964 and married her on January 29, 1966. They loved to sit on the front porch of their Middletown home and talk to neighbors in the community. They had their first child, Donald on August 7, 1966, and their second child, Samantha on June 19, 1980. In 1987 his son was killed in a car accident.

Wayne had an ornery personality and loved to make people laugh. He enjoyed collecting coins and NASCAR collectibles. His favorite NASCAR driver was Dale Earnhardt and would watch every race with excitement. Since the loss of his wife, he took pride in being known as the “grumpy old man”. He spent his last two years at Newark Manor Nursing Home, and he was loved by staff and family. He enjoyed our visits and loved introducing his grandchildren to his Newark Manor family.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Brenda, parents, Earl and Lillian Campbell, sister, Brenda Conover, and two brothers, Dennis, and William Campbell.

Wayne is survived by his daughter Samantha Campbell-Davis and her husband Eric, three beautiful granddaughters, Brianna (age 24), Taylor (age 21), and Rylee (age 15); and grandson, Brendan (2 years old), his siblings, Larry Campbell of Warwick, MD, Gary Campbell of Townsend, DE and Linda Snyder of Virginia. Wayne is also survived by many nieces and nephews in Delaware.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend services on Saturday, December 11th, the viewing will be from 12 – 1 pm, the service will begin at 1 pm at the Daniels & Hutchison Funeral Home, 212 N. Broad St., Middletown, DE. Burial will follow in Forest Cemetery.
