

Sarah Craig

Sarah Joan Craig, 91, of Fort Myers, Fla., passed away at 7:15 p.m. March 22, 2017. She was retired as head of payroll for Reasor Corporation, Charleston.

Cremation was scheduled and interment is in Edgar County Cemetery. All other details are pending. The Neptune Cremation Society of Fort Myers, Fla., was in charge of the arrangements.

Mrs. Craig was born Aug. 15, 1925, at Paris, the daughter of the late Daniel Wesley Humphrey and Katherine Lydia Gillum. She married Orral Junior Craig, April 7, 1946, at Paris, and he survives.

She is also survived by Daniel O. (Anita) Craig of Town & Country, Mo., and J Douglas (Cherrie) Craig of Fort Myers, Fla.; five grandchildren, Whitney, Katie, Austin, Jon and Ben; and nine great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her siblings, Kathleen Killion; brothers, Harold and Ralph; and two other sisters, Mary Bee and Helen.

After graduating from high school, she was employed by the Sunshine Feed Store. She was later employed at the old Paris Hospital in the 1960s, after she raised her sons.

Mrs. Craig spent many happy winters in McAllen, Texas, at the Tip-O-Texas

RV Resort with many other Edgar County retirees. In 2006, she and her husband moved to Fort Myers to live with their son and daughter-in-law. She was an active gardener and member of Seed Savers. She was previously active as a volunteer at Lincoln Log Cabin Historic Park and later participated in and was a championship gold medal walker in the Texas State Senior Olympics.

Memorial donations may be made to HOPE Hospice, 9470 Healthpark Circle, Fort Myers, Florida 33908.
