Obituary for Richard William Kilfoil

Richard William Kilfoil, 94 of Greenville, MI and formerly of Virginia, MN and Britt, MN, went home to be with his Lord and savior early Tuesday morning, March 27, 2018.

Richard is survived by his wife, Natalie; daughter, Katha (Dan) Hadash; grandchildren, Jill (Russell) Brunfelt, Danielle (Steven) Korbar, Rick Kilfoil, and Jessie Cervigni; seven great-grandchildren; step-children, Ann (James) Stump, John (Cynthia) Adams, Daniel (Lee) Adams, and Cathy (Kropewnicki) Adams; step-grandchildren, Michelle (Arnold) Buckley, Katyn Adams, Todd (Alana) Stump, Margaret (Andrew) Scharf, and Andrew (Heather) Adams; and two step-great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his first wife, Doris Sakrison Kilfoil; son, Dan Kilfoil; and step-son-in-law, Michael Kropewnicki.

Dick was born March 15, 1924 in Mt. Iron, MN to David and Ina (Peltola) Kilfoil.

Dick was commissioned by the US Navy, served in the Merchant Marines, and was a veteran of World War II. He was proud of his Finnish heritage, an avid traveler, and loved seeing the sights in his Winnebago. Dick dedicated his employment as a pipefitter and business agent for Plumbers Union Local 589.

Memorial services will be held at 11:00 am Saturday, May 12, 2018 at the First Congregational Church of Greenville, Rev. Jason Dillingham officiating. Memorial contributions may be given to the First Congregational Church of Greenville or Local Animal Shelter Support, Inc. (LASSI).
