Mr. and Mrs. Luke Logan received word from their sons, Frank and Matt, that they have enlisted and Matt left Monday for the Military Training Camp at S__ane, Washington, and expects to go later to Paca__, California. Frank will leave June 24 for Camp Lewis, Washington. They both held position in the Nation Bank of Billings, Mont.

Source: Melrose Bell, June 13, 1918

Mr. and Mrs. Luke Logan have received word from their son, Frank, that he is improving and was then in a hospital at Paris where the soldier boys were receiving every care and attention. The day he wrote, he was going to see the sight of the city.

Source: Melrose Bell, December 5, 1918

Mr. and Mrs. Luke Logan received official notice last week that their son, Frank, was wounded, degree not determined, in the battle of Arrongon Forest in France, Sept. 26. Frank spent some time in the hospital and is now with his regiment. They expect to sail for home about March 5.

Source: Melrose Bell, February 13, 1919

Frank Logan, 67, Dies in Oregon

Frank Logan, 67, of Salem, Ore., died Wednesday of a heart attack.

Logan was born in Melrose, where he spent his early years.

Surviving are his wife; three grandchildren; two brothers, Luke Logan of Melrose and Mat Logan of Santa Cruz, Calif.; and four sisters, Mrs. T. A. Moran, and Miss Alice Logan of Melrose, Mrs. Henry Witt of Holstein, and Mrs. Walter Coffin of West Slip, L. I., N. Y.

A son died in 1961.

The funeral as at Salem Saturday morning.

Source: Monroe County News, March 18, 1963