Beloved wife, mother of 12, grandmother of 42, great grandmother of 36, sister and friend has left us and waits up ahead after one hellava race. She began her journey in Pinewood, Ontario, Canada in 1934. She married James Lynch in 1951 and they moved to Minnesota to raise their family. Together with husband Jim, in 1977, they built a thriving family restaurant, "Jimmy's Pour House" in Sauk Rapids, MN. Marilyn, a smashing freckle-faced redhead in her day, loved a competitive game of cards or golf, was a force to be reckoned with at the pool table, thought her grandkids were just a notch above others', and loved the Mass and her purple rosary. She was a member of Sacred Heart Catholic Church and enjoyed going on TEC retreats.

Survived by her husband of 60 years, James "Jimmy" Lynch; children, Kathryn (Blake) Begnaud, Patrick (Maureen) Lynch, Michael (Judith) Lynch, Maureen (Rick) Huff, Mary Beth (Dick Koll) Isaacs, Cynthia (Gary) Fasching, Erin Bjorklund, Dena (Jason) Hagberg, Ann (Tim) Cavegn, James (Alison) Lynch and Daniel (Tara) Lynch; loving brother and sister-in-law, Mel and Marg Scheirer; 42 grandchildren and 36 great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Rudy and Edith Scheirer; infant son, Daniel Timothy; and great grandson, Dane James Isaacs.
