

Great time at the Hall this a.m. Golden Age Olympic's theme, "Born to be Wild," kicked off the parade of Olympians. Of course we needed to get everyone's attention and what better way than ride in on a Harley. Tip o Texas won the overall Park Award, Stewart Kunselman won the Men's Olympian and Phyl Thackery won overall female Olympian. Congrats to all. Needless to say, we had a blast.

It is sad to realize that many residents are packing to leave sometime in the next couple of weeks. I keep telling them that the Midwest got hit again with snow last night and it is too early to head North. If you are leaving soon, please drop me a line to let us know if you safely reached your summer home. We are always concerned about our Tip family.

Don't forget Friday is St. Patrick's Day and there re several activities planned. I need tennis players to walk in the parade. Don't forget to bring your rackets. After lunch there will be games. Please come out and join the fun.

Have a good week. Your favorite "BIKER MAMA" Pam
