Pam's Notes

Sorry I'm late in sending the minutes. It is with sad news that my loving mother passed on Wed. morning. We have been in and out of the hospital for the past several weeks. With her strong heart and strong will, or maybe a little of stubbornness thrown in (all of you who knew her understands) she finally succumbed after 3 weeks on hospice. It is a blessing, due to the quality of life she was experiencing. She's now with the Lord and sharing the good life with my dad.

On a much more pleasant note...our Tip resident Elaine DeVaney has been working her talents. I received this picture and note from John: Elaine won a blue ribbon at Porter Co. fair.

Hope you are having a great summer. All things are good with us.
