Pam's Notes

Happy Belated "Earth Day"

Look what's growing at the front entrance gate at the Hobby Shop. We have our own banana tree. Hoping the picture comes through to all.

We had a wonderful Easter Dinner at the Hall. Thanks to Mary Kit and her crew for all their hard work. Table decorations were beautiful and the food excellent.

The streets are very quiet and many residents have traveled North. I heard from the Martels: well after 6 days on the road with more sun since leaving the Tip, we arrived home with no unforeseen problems...did not know that TEXAS was sooo big...we travelled the western part of the country and now know why there are so many farmers...Fredricksburg was beautiful and expensive and the flowers great..hope you all have a Happy Easter and a wonderful summer ...still snow on the ground here but going fast...Mike and Claudette...

The Salewskes:

We are home!! Had a great Easter weekend in Fort Worth TX with our family from Katy, TX The Fort Worth Stockyards were interesting. Watched the run of the Long Horn cattle down the Main Street! Kids did Easter Egg hunt. Things are very green here. Our dock is in, Yay!

However, only 42 degrees this a.m.
John and Char Salewske.

The Schoutens:

Arvid and I made it home on Tuesday with a great ride in the sun all the way. Two daughters and a son in-law unpacked the car for us . Wonderful. Thanks for the news letter every week. Cindy & Arvid Schouten

The Thomas:

Karl and I made it home safely on Tuesday evening and enjoying our beautiful view of the lake, even though it is still frozen, and all the deer running around.

Happy Easter everyone, we really enjoy our friends at the TOT and looking forward to seeing everyone in the Fall.
Yvonne and Karl

The Harris:

Left on Monday so we could iss the storms going through the way we go home. Glad we did. Had good weather and got home around 8 p.m. on Wednesday. Dick and Jan Harris

I guess I will bite the bullet and start packing. Heard it was grass mowing time in Central Illinois. Wishing all those leaving this week a safe ride home. Have a great week. Pam
