Monday Morning Meeting Minutes
Oct 14 at 10:39 AM

Pledge Allegiance to the flag

Welcome back to Bob and Alta Hough.

Barry Wallage led us in prayer.

Al reported 208 residents on 147 sites. Be sure to pick up your car stickers and information packets at the main office.

Kitchen News - Amy and John (new work campers) will be here the 4th week of October. Food class is being set up - Sign up in office.

Kerry and Jenny Gibson will be taking care of the Outpost this season.

Thirsty Thursday will be at Scalisi's on Nolana.

Bonnie spoke with Carol Wilder who will be spending 3 months here this season. Taima Bergman will be here on November 2.

Joyce Sauter - the Alzheimer's walk will be on November 16. Please see Joyce on lot 966 to sign up. Tickets are available for the quilt raffle ($2 or 3/$5)

Tai Chi this morning after the meeting and on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 9.

Wednesday night dance, hot dogs from 5-7.

Marilyn Bullington - Summer horsecollar is winding down. There will be an awards ceremony in the next week or two (depending on UPS).

Chair volleyball on Saturday at 3:00.

Karaoke on Friday at 6:00.

Halloween costume party on October 30th at the dance.

Betty Mauck wanted to remind everyone that she is collecting toiletries and will be delivering them soon.

The Craft show will begin on 12/21. If you are a crafter, see Marilyn Bullington to sign up for a table.

Veteran's Day - Steve Powell always did such a great job helping us celebrate Veteran's Day. If you are a veteran, please help us celebrate Veteran's Day and the 75th anniversary of D-Day.

Deadline for Our Town is Thursday, October 24th (for the November issue).

Have a GREAT week!

Late Note from Dave Ochs

Jane (Strating) passed away yesterday Oct 14, 2019. Jane was a park resident for many years, she and her husband Gerald were one of the first to stay in the park the year it opened. At that time they were in a motor home and later lived in two different park model trailers for the winter months. She was choir director in the village chapel for many years. She loved people and did many things in the park. She will be missed by all who knew her.

Pam's Notes

Oh my: Late Fall has arrived. The leaves are turning colors as I type. High 80's last week to 40's and 50's and frost this. I have even pulled out the long underwear to do yard work. Here I am shivering and talked to Cliff Simpson in Minneapolis who said they have already had several snows. It's time to migrate.

Sad to report a couple of past Tip residents who died. Dave Ochs wrote:

Merrill Deardorff, 93, passed away Saturday. His wife Alice had passed away several years ago. Thank you Ilene Jensen and Marjean Haney for keeping us informed.

After reading the minutes, it seems the Park has made plans to welcome us back. We have new cooks and Outpost volunteers. So closing I wish all those lucky enough to head south to travel safe. Hoping to see you soon.
