Pam's Notes

Good Evening: It's getting cooler her in Illinois, but worse is central Wisconsin where there is 2 1/2" of snow predicted for tonight. If you're already at the Tip, good for you. I'm afraid the fall season will soon be winter and I'm still up North. I'm hoping to be a Texan by the first of next week.

For all of those traveling, don't forget to save the small shampoo's etc. for a donation to the women's center. Betty Mauk collects these.

Happy Halloween!!! Pam
