Pam's Notes

Good afternoon!!

Pete and I are finally ready to migrate south. Last dentist appointment tomorrow and we're on our way! So tired of these 40's and 50's temps. Can't wait for hot sunshine!

I had good results last week at the hospital. Drs say chemo is working slowly, but showing improvement every treatment. Music to my ears. The Lord is good, my friends, and He is surely looking over me!!!!

We are looking forward to getting back in the groove. From the minutes, activities are in full swing. A big Thank You for those of you who have stepped up to volunteer for being chairmen.

I did want to include a note from Pat Allison:

Had a call from Ruth Bryson that she had had a fall in her home about 3 weeks ago and broke her pelvis. She is now in nursing home at Overbrook KS for a couple more weeks or so. She still hopes to be able to get to the Tip but may be late. Jim and I are pretty well recuperated from covid of a month ago, relatively mild, about like old fashioned flu. Cold has gotten our tomatoes, still some green. Ones. Lawn mowers now still come but only to chop the leaves. I'm having some minor eye-lid surgery tomorrow so we will be a couple weeks later coming. Can't wait to get there, I remember what follows cool frost and beautiful leaves!

Please keep your prayers coming for safety to all of us traveling. Hope to see you soon. Pam
