

MONDAY MORNING MEETING MINUTES

Meeting Date: September 11, 2023

Notes from the Monday Morning Coffee and Conversation 9-11-23

Marilyn opened the Conversation at 9:00 a.m. with the Pledge of Allegiance.

Today is 9/11, Patriot's Day. We reminisced about where we were when we heard about the Towers. Today is also Jennifer Kirkland's birthday!

There are several who still need our prayers in the Park.

- ♦ Edith is off the ventilator but has not opened her eyes or talked yet.
- ♦ Sylvia is in Rehab with wrist, foot and knee injuries. Sherry Dickey is to be called when visitors are allowed. Please keep them in your prayers. Irene is here this morning!
- ♦ Jeannice Walters is in the slow process of trying to find physical therapy.
- ♦ Barb Chappel continues to get infections. Both need our prayers too.

Internet Update: Nothing is scheduled to happen for RV Parks, despite the fact that they are laying cable at Cage and Sioux Rds. The City now says that they do not intend to do RV parks or mobile homes. Lynn has sent another email to someone from the City who gave a speech to businesses inviting them to join. We are not giving up but it does not look good.

Al has said that there are 5 big trees with limbs on houses that they are waiting on.

Regarding the reflective house numbers, the City is now saying that they are also not going to do RV parks, although there is one site in the Park that has them.

The Womens' showers near the outside pool are still closed this week. They have been painted but the vents are now being cleaned and painted.
