Dangles are in! Stop by the activities office to get yours!

Everyone who attended Peter Piper on Tuesday of last week received a free lunch for the next time they go! Thanks to Willie the manager who is awesome!

Regina Haynie is working on ADs for the Our Town. She has gotten feedback that previous advertisers don't think the AD's work. So, she created a small card that we can leave with our tip or give to someone when we use their services so they know we saw the AD in the Our Town. She is also going to create a flyer for any of us to give to businesses and restaurants asking them to advertise with us. You can get them from her or the activity office

Church will be starting in November.

Please stop into the office and pick up your new copy of the park rules and sticker for your car! They are ready and waiting.
