Dearest Friends: I would like to take this opportunity to thank each and every one of you for your cards, gifts, and prayers. Sharing my loss with such friends as you has helped to lighten my broken heart. My Dan will sadly be missed by many. You have shown such a tribute to his life by your out-pouring of love. With heart felt thanks, I say God Bless you! Pam

MONDAY MORNING MEETING

August 6, 2006

Notes

Richard Haupt opened the meeting with the Pledge of Allegiance.

Hospital report as given by Richard , Connie Burns is home from the hospital. Harriet Rogers is in ICU at McAllen Heart Hospital. Pam Brown's Husband, Dan was killed while crossing the street. He had gone to McDonalds to get his Grandchildren the toys they give away and when going back to his Truck he was hit by a van that came out of nowhere.

Dan was a substitute usher for our church services at the park. Pams address is on the board next to the office for anyone wanting to send cards. Jeanette Craigs mother had a fall at home and is in the hospital. They don't know exactly whats wrong with her but she has terrible pain in her hip. Jeanette is leaving to be with her.

Bob Wyant offered prayers for the sick and deceased to use his powers as a physican to help those grieving and sick get well. He also offered prayers for our park, our state , our country and for the pastors who administering to us.

Lela & Richard Bishop provided Cinnamon Rolls.

Richard checked with the office about the new building and Lisa said Gene had called to see if they had started construction on the building. Nothing has been done since concrete was poured.

Bottom Line Band playing for dance Wednesday Night.

Dave Ochs, reported they all had a great time at the ball game Saturday, lots of $1.00 beer innings and the team won.

Next ball game is on the 17th of August. Thirsty Thursday and it is $1.00 beer night. Sign up sheet in back of hall. There is no information yet on when the playoff's will be. Dave will take care of arrangements until Ray & Norma get back, but they are leaving on the 17th for a trip up north.

Al Barnes, after giving us all a chuckle with his real life story said that half of the people here in the park this summer have taken his CPR class and he hopes the rest of the summer residents will sign up and take it before the winter residents get back so he can schedule them. He hopes every one in the park will take the class.

Thirsty Thursday will be at Jason's Deli on 2nd St. it is in same area as Mr. Ghati's. Mary Dwyer said if you wear your badge you might get 10% off your bill.

All who attended the trip to Brookridge Retirement facility enjoyed the meal and tour.
