Happy Thanksgiving to all: More and more are returning to the Tip. The weather has been perfect here. High 70's during the days and 50-60 at nights. We heard that Don and Joan Phillips were recently in a blizzard....we're so sorry to hear that. Did we say how nice it has been??

We're all getting ready for the turkey dinner at the hall. Can't believe how the time is flying by. For the tennis players...remember to check the board for the new schedule for next week. Please put down on your calendars that there will be a tennis meeting on Sunday, Dec 3rd at 4 p.m. in the Arts & Crafts room. We need to discuss several things including a tennis sponsored program in February.

So without any other news, have a good week and drive carefully if you're on your way down. Pam

Monday November 20, 2006

We began the meeting with the pledge to our flag.

Connie Burns gave the Hospital report:

Good News! Ruth Golding and John Smith are home!

Bernice Burgess has been moved to Comfort House in McAllen. Perhaps friends can stop in there for a few minutes now and then to visit with Maynard, who can use support from us at this trying time.

Former residents: Chris Dickey passed away yesterday; Bertie Stump is terminal.

Pastor Bill led a prayer for comfort for all of these folks and also in Thanksgiving for our blessings.

Lavon asked newcomers and returnees to stand to be welcomed. The Hall is getting full!

Bonnie Christian reported that tickets for PSJA plays are available in the office. Pippin will be preformed from Nov. 30-Dec 9. Wilder Parks will have a special section on Dec 7. Get your Pro-medic stickers on the office now. The busses are here and will be available for day trips as soon as they are serviced and volunteer drivers are found.

Announcements:

Bible study starts Friday Ac room. Sunday school begins Dec 7.

The City of Pharr will have a tree lighting ceremony with music and food Dec.2 from 5-10 P.M. at the city hall. Tip of Texas will carol from 8-8:30. Maxine Brooks asks all who are interested in participating in this event to come to chorus practice Tues at 3:00 in the AC room .

The Pharr Chamber of Commerce needs volunteers to man the Travel Information Center again this season. Tip of Texas will man the office there Dec 1-15, weekdays only. Hours 9-12 or 12:30-4:00. Hilda Claude and Doris Peters are asking for volunteers to meet after this meeting today, or to call Doris at 702-1778. Events calendar for the City of Pharr is posted on our board.

The Outpost is open mornings only for November.

Chairman Jackie Ridlin asked hostess for Thanksgiving to stand. A list will be put on the board for last minute arrivals to join in. Roasters ovens will be loaned out after the meeting, and should be returned Friday 9-10 A.M. or after next Monday's meeting.

Clarence Weber thanked all who signed up to ring for the Salvation Army drive next month. He asked that you notify him if you are unable to come on your designated times. He also has placed a kettle in the office for donations.

The morning exercise class will continue to meet at 7:30 in the Main Hall.

Mary Kit's weight lifting group will return to its schedule of T-Thurs-Sat in the AC room at 8:00. The attempt to combine these did not work out.

Al Barnes reminded those who are signed up about pro time test Tues morning in the PO lobby. Next Tues evening the seminar on the Eye will be held in the Main Hall at 7:00P.M. CPR classes are still being given.

Arlene Strain spoke about the blood drive on Dec 1.10-3 in the AC room. You need to sign up for a time to donate. She read off a list of reasons people use for not giving blood. The need is great-Sign up on the Health bulletin board!

Connie Harmon and Brenda Muller brought some of their ceramic projects to demonstrate what can be made in their class. Anyone can do it.

Jack Muller brought in some lemons for people to take. He wants a piece of lemon pie from someone!

Ray Pepe asked how many residents are interested in a pontoon boat cruise on the Rio Grande . It was decided to try for a Friday 11:00A.M. ride followed by lunch in the Riverside Club restaurant. The boat trip is $13. Lunch will be extra. Sign up sheet on the board.
