We're not complaining of a little rain.....Sunshine will soon be with us again...and when it's still in the high 70's, all you have to do is carry an umbrella. With only a few weeks left before heading North, we must make the most of everyday. Have a great week. Pam

Lavon started the meeting at 10:00 with the pledge to the flag.

Connie Harmon gave the hospital report:

Oscar Dempsey is in Rio Grande Regional. Gerry St. Aubin is at Mc Allen Medical. Margaret Ludwig has returned to the TIP after re-hab, and Max Miller has come out of the hospital up north. Ray Pepe is scheduled for shoulder surgery on Wed. The news about Mary and Matt Kitkowski's great grandson is wonderful. He survived the heart surgery, and prognosis is good. Connie Harmon asked for everyone to pray for her continued good health.

Pastor Bill led a prayer asking for showers of blessings on these folks and indeed for all of our lives.

Gene Christian said that following the news report in the Monitor last week, Mr. Wilder, Bonnie and Gene met with the city of Pharr to find out their intentions toward the building of a new convention center on Cage. The city does want the center, but there is no indication when or if it will become fact. Gene said "When we know, you'll know." Let's put the rumors to rest.

Jennice reminded everyone about the St. Patrick's celebration on Wed., March 14. The parade will be at 10:00, with the Appreciation dinner at 12:30. The menu includes brats, beans, chips and drinks. Everyone is invited. There will be ice cream from 2-4 and the usual dance at 7:00 P.M.

Looks like Wednesday will be a busy day!

The entertainment this week will be the Magic Valley Men of Accord on Thursday, the Winter Texan orchestra on Friday, and Mari and her Spanish Angels from 1-2 on Sunday. Doris Peters told us that her husband, Bill Peters is a member of the Men Of Accord, and encouraged all who are able to attend both this concert and the orchestra performance. Many of the Tip residents are members of this orchestra. Our own Harley Brown will conduct.

Beverly Elliot those signed up about the bus trip to King Ranch tomorrow. The last trip of the season will be a mystery trip on March 27. Sign up if you are a gambler.

Doris asked all members of the Kitchen Band to meet at 9:30 at 888 Tropic Trail before the parade on Wednesday to gear up in their uniforms.

Joe Strain gave the Health News wrap up:

(1) Emergency Beacon lights are available in the Outpost for $6. These blinking lights make it easier for First Responders and Emergency personnel to find your house in case of need.

(2) Vial of Life containers are only 50 cents at the Outpost. Joe suggests that you get one for your refrigerator, and one for the glove compartment of your car. Make sure the information is up to date. A list of correct medications may save your life!

(3) The Al Barnes Medical seminar series continues this Tues. night at 7:00. The subjects will be the Pulmonary tract and also Arthritis. Bring your questions.

(4) Pro Time is Tues. March 20 at 8:30 A.M. Sign up on the Health board.

(5) CPR classes are ongoing. Sign on the Health board for instruction.

Charlotte Cooper announced that the Sr. Olympic meeting is at Las Palmas today at 1:30. If you have questions or ideas, contact her. She said Thanks to the Olympians for her gift.

Pat Horak was named Fan of the Game when a group from the TIP went to the Killer Bees hockey game. She will compete for Fan of the Year on March 24th. She asks for our support to win. The prize is a new ATV, which she will donate to be raffled off here. Tickets to the hockey game are $12. Lets get a bunch together and go root her into first place!

Alta's Friday night soup supper will be a choice of Ham and Bean soup or Chicken Noodle soup, with a sandwich and dessert for $3.00. Service begins at 5:00.

Esther Eikenhorst reminded us that this week is the last Peter Piper Pizza trip for the season. Sign up and join the group for food and fun.

The project Sewing for Children needs suitable fabric for next season. Pretty cotton prints, plaids, and plains are wanted. They can use thread, yarn, zippers, and trimmings and buttons also. This group makes clothes and afghans for children in the colonias.

Don Wilcox announced that there is to be a party on Thursday, March 22 to honor Maynard Burgess on his 90th birthday. Friends will meet at the Golden Corral on North 10th street at 2:45. Golf is cancelled for that occasion. Sign up on the board.

Katha Haddish told us that the Outpost has some things for half price this week. The Lost and Found has many items waiting to go home. Please stop in and reclaim your possessions.

John O'Brien announced that the picture web site will remain in operation through the summer. If you have pictures of your summer activities, send them to John or Rene St. James.
