Lavon called the meeting to begin with the pledge to the flag.

Connie Harmon gave the hospital report:

Kathleen Egnawn is in Rio Grande. Ethel Comunale is still in Edinberg ICU, and really needs our prayers.

Pastor Bill led us in prayer for God's touch on both these ladies, and asked for safe travel for those who are leaving for their northern homes.

Bonnie and Gene Christian wished everyone who is traveling a safe journey home, and a quick return. Gene reminded all about the Bring-a Friend program. Bonnie asked that those who have rentals available to be sure to notify the Office; to remember to fill out the mail forwarding cards; and that rent is due by April 1. The office is open on Sunday from 10-4, but discounts will still be effect on Monday.

Charlie Waltz reported that nothing has been changed since the meeting with the officials from the City of Pharr last Tuesday. The City Manager gave us a lot of information, and promised to return with the results of the feasibility study, possibly in November. Charlie said he was encouraged that they now realize how close a relationship the residents here have with each other. Mr. Wilder does not want to sell. Pharr now knows it will not be easy to change things here. Charlie asked folks not to be calling the City and making waves. If you have some further concerns-pray about them.

Thought for today:

Home should be a place of mutual responsibility and respect, of encouragement and cooperation and counsel, of integrity, of willingness to work, of discipline when necessary, with the tempering quality of love added to it, with a sense of belonging, and with someone to talk to. Richard L. Evans

Doesn't this perfectly describe our home here at the TIP? Travel safely! Kathie
