Monday June 4th, 2007

The meeting started with the pledge.

Ray Pepe gave the hospital report:

Ethel Comunale is starting her second round of chemotherapy. Sadly he daughter has been diagnosed with viral meningitis, and also needs our prayers.

Don Maxiner is stronger. He is still on oxygen, and needs more rehab. Visitors are welcome

Oscar Dempsey is doing well in Houston. He will receive a new pacemaker and defribulator. He may be able to travel back to the TIP in two weeks.

Mary Gray is home at last! She is still feeling tired. Her daughter is coming to help for a while.

Former resident Richard Rogers has passed away.

Laurel Zipf said a beautiful prayer.

Fresh Danish pastry was provided this morning by Jean Claire and Bob Miller. A list for treats for Monday meetings is being organized. (You know we never get enough goodies here)

Bob Fassen and Richard Haupt spoke about the recent rash of bicycle thefts. Haupt's shed was also broken into over the weekend. Both men have spoken with the Pharr Police. Some of the merchandize from Haupt's has been recovered, and one of the bicycles.

There was some discussion about what we can do to protect our Park from thieves. A neighborhood watch may be organized. The Crime Prevention officer from the Pharr Police Department has offered to speak to our group.

Ray read a letter written by Jay Leno about why we are dissatisfied with our lives.

Activities this week include the dance Wednesday night with the Bottom Line Band, a trip to see the Edinburgh Coyotes play, and Thirsty Thursday, which will be at Joe's Crab Shack. Dave Ochs, Host. Barb Horne will lead karaoke on Friday at 7:00 in the AC room. (If you haven't tried yet, come on out for a great deal of fun!)

Mary Dwyer reminded everyone to check with their insurance agents about wind damage coverage. With the approach of the hurricane season, folks should review their plans for evacuation if necessary. Those who do not wish to drive may call 211 to sign up for transportation.

Joe Strain told a few jokes about Little Gloria.

We ended the meeting as usual with God Bless America.

Thought for Today:

Eternal vigilance is the price of freedom.

Please send this on to those on your email list.
