Happy Belated Veterans Day to all of you. We've had another great week of sunshine and warm weather. I have heard from Joe and Hilda Claude and their expected arrival date:

Hi Pam ,

I know I am late for the start of the tennis season, I am thinking about you guys every morning @ 7:00 AM.,

We hope to be on our way to our favorite warm weather home on Sunday Nov.19/07.

Pam we want to express a special thanks to you for taking the time to keep us up to date with the activities at the Tip, THANK YOU> you are special.

See you soon . Hilda and Joe.

Always good to hear that our friends are on their way home, that's their winter home. More residents are arriving daily. Good to see the park filling back up. For all of you who are traveling...please be safe and we'll see you soon.

For all you tennis players...Regular tennis schedule starts next Monday...please check the board for your team's time slot. Also we're having a Clinic on Serving at 4 p.m. on Wednesday. Remember to ask your neighbors or any new residents to come join our fun. See you on the courts.....Pam Monday November 12, 2007.

Lavon called the meeting to order with the pledge to our flag.

Pastor Bill gave the hospital report:

Javier Vela (Bubba) is in Renaissance hospital ICU recovering from quadruple bypass surgery.

Deanna Piska hopes to come home today!

Barbara Raabe is back in Renaissance.

Dave Wabeke has been diagnosed with cancer.

Brenda Muller fell in her unit here on Friday, and had to have 20 stitches. She is getting around on crutches.

Georgene Thobe fell here Sat. and broke 3 fingers.

Reports from the East coast tell that Ethel Comunale is not doing well and needs to hear from her friends. Address is in the Church board.

News from Houston is that Juanita and Oscar Dempsey are doing well in their new apartment. They are missed here.

Cliff Simpson lost his mother recently. Dave Ochs' brother passed away.

Prayers are requested for Connie Harmon's grand-niece and Greg Haupt,

(He is on new medication, and things look hopeful).

Pastor Bill led a prayer for all.

Bonnie Christian reminded us that no cards or mail are to be put in individual boxes without postage. There is a Get -well card for Javier in the Main office for everyone to sign, also a box for those who wish to make donations toward his medical expenses.

Bonnie also has tickets for the PSJA high school play "A 1960's Musical" to be performed Nov. 29 &30 and Dec. 1.6.7 &8. Get your tickets from her is the TIP office.
