Hello to all: Warm weather has returned and we all appreciate that. Everyone has such a different attitude with just a little sunshine. There's lots going on this week on the tennis courts. Remember \

Thursday, 4 p.m. Clinic Day,
Saturday, 10 a.m. Fun Tourney,
Sunday 4 p.m. Tennis Meeting in the Arts and Crafts Room.

Also, please remind everyone that Glenn Elliott is giving free tennis lessons. If they aren't already taking his lessons, that can talk to Glenn about another session.

Let's keep those who are scheduled for surgery and those who were on the health list in our prayers. Have a great week. Pam

MONDAY NOVEMBER 26,2007

Lavon opened the meeting with the pledge to the flag.

Connie Harmon gave the hospital report:

-Lorraine O'Neill is in Renaissance hospital. Her children have arrived to help her through this time.

-Joy Ochs is undergoing surgery this morning. She is also at Renaissance.

-Don Wilcox and Arthur Bumgardner will both have surgery there tomorrow.

-News about Ed Wabeke is that he had a spur removed from one lung, and is waiting for the results of tests. He and Anne hope to be here around the first of the year.

A note from Al Comunle requests cards and letters for Ethel. Her address is on the board.

K.K.(Connie's grand-niece) is undergoing surgery today

Pastor Bill led a prayer. We pray for a good recovery for all of these loved ones.

There were some first timers and returnees to be welcomed today.

Our park is filling up!

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

-The water will be turned off at 8:00 tomorrow morning while a valve is replaced.

-Speed limit in the Park is 15 MPH. Please observe it, or we may have to have speed bumps installed.

-There is a box in the Front office for donations toward Christmas gifts for the Maintenance and Security staff.

-Horace Young lost a beige jacket. If you find it, please turn it in at the Office.

-Last chance for tickets to the Lutheran Church dinner theater is today.

-Tickets for Razz Ma Tazz and other entertainment are available in both offices and the Outpost.. (Bonnie Christian)

-The Outpost has some beautiful small tabletop Christmas trees available. In fact the Outpost has everything you might need from Christmas Decorations to hemorrhoid crème.

 Have you been out to the Outpost to see the new look? Do yourself a favor and take the time to stop in. You will be pleased to see how great the store looks

-The bus trips to see the Christmas Lights are both full. There is a sign up sheet for backup in case of cancellations.

-A trip to Harlingen's Market days is being planned, as well as a trip to the Outlet Mall in Mercedes. The bus must be full before the trips can be finalized. The cost of fuel makes this a necessity. (Katha Haddish)

-Both offices and the Outpost have the coupon books available for $10.

-Tickets are on sale now for Razz Ma Tazz, The Rainbow Folkloric Dancers, as well as the New Year's Eve Dance and the New Year's Eve Karaoke Party.

-Volunteers are still needed for many activities, including Texas Hold'em, Kitchen Band, MWF Dancer, the 50th Anniversary Party, and Casino Night. Since illness has taken some of our leaders, please step up and offer your talents. Without our volunteers there would be few activities. (Jennice)

-Appointments for photographs will be arranged for December. Some of the pictures taken last time are still waiting to be picked up in the Activity office. We are trying to get 100% coverage for this year's Pictorial. Please sign up for your turn to smile at the camera. (Cheryl Lundy)

-Beginning Line Dance at 9:00 MH . Beginning Clogging will start this Monday at 1 P.M. AC room. See Jane Head.

-A group of our residents who help at the Matamoras Children's Home are planning to start a citrus grove there in order to insure that the kids have plenty of fruit and vitamins... They need your help. You may purchase a tree for $15 or you can give you time and energy to help with the planting. Contact Al or Jane Head at lot 385. (Jane Head)

-Bob Faasen will start a Computer class Friday . This first session will be an exploratory session to ascertain what students will need.. Friday 1:00 ABFH (Jenny Faasen)
