Hello from Branson, MO. Checking out places for the Tip Tennis get together in September and having a nice time. Heading to Illinois Friday a.m. I heard it was raining at the Tip since last Sunday and still expecting more. Guess it was a good time for me to get out of town. It has been beautiful traveling the last few days. Low 80's with lots of sunshine. I think the rain will be chasing all day tomorrow. Oh well. The Blue Bonnets were absolutely beautiful driving from McAllen to Dallas. I have never seen them so much in bloom. All of you who left around Easter left a week too soon.

I thought you might like to see pics of the FEMA trailers. We only had 5 when I left on the 11th, but we should get 5 more. There is a lot of work to be done for them to be presentable for renting. They are suppose to replace furniture and build closets.....but ...we'll see.

So have a good week and hopefully the pictures will come through. Pam
