Burr.....cold here in South TX. Thought you might want to know that a guy at last night's dance reported he saw snow flurries while driving from Falfurrias around 7 p.m. With it being 41* it melted before hitting the windshield, but he swore it was snowing... I believed it since it has been so biting cold. Sure hope it warms up soon.

A note to all the tennis players. Please check your e-mail in regards to Saturday's Tennis Fun Meet. They are trying to schedule an enter-park meet with Tropic Star and this Saturday was the day they picked. I haven't heard if it is confirmed or not. If it does not develop, we will meet at 10 a.m. for our regular Fun Meet.

One request...please keep Gene McDaniel in your prayers today. He has another place on his face being removed at the hospital today. They will keep him overnight.

If anyone needs to pass a message through the grapevine, just drop me a line. All for today.....Pam
