Hello Tip Friends. I just returned from Fall Homemakers camp held at an old 4-H campground in Central Illinois. Camp date was changed after the heat we've suffered in July...but in exchange it rained all day Fri. and then turned cold for the other 3 days. We've had frost on the ground and we were sleeping in bunk beds in cabins. It was lots of fun, but sometimes I wonder "Why does one do what she does?" It will be nice to sleep in a bed fo a chnage.

I've added a few more names to my list, so hopefully I'm building my e-mail list slowly, but surely. Here's some added notes to this weeks MMMeeting:

Thanks for all the news. We really enjoy hearing from you about the news from the Tip and all the residents.
Marge & Jim Demaree

We are busy packing and will be leaving in about 10 days. Should arrive at the TIP by 10-15. We have been enjoying a beautiful fall in the North Woods - the color has been fantastic, but it is beginning to face and the leaves are falling fast. Cold predicted for the end of this week. Really is time to move South.

See you soon.

Joyce & Dave Sauter

Hi Pam, Glad you got things staightened out with your computer. Ours also crashed, so we were without for a while. It's so good to hear about all our friends from the Tip. Thanks so much for sending their notes on to us. We had a great summer in spite of the heat. Didn't get outside things done like we had planned, but there's always next year. We hope. lol We have been well, but I hate to even think that, as things could change in a minute. We will be down to the Tip the week after Christmas. Still not ready to give that up. Would you please remind everyone to bring their mini toiletries down again for the Abuse Shelter in McAllen? We will again be collecting them. thank you. Have a safe trip down to the Tip. Will look forward to seeing you again.
Jerry and Kay Petersen

Please remember to collect your freebies at any hotel stay and bring them to the valley. Kay will see that they will be taken to the shelter.

My mother and I attended Millie Craig's funeral, but we missed seeing Joe and Pat Horack. Pat wrote:

Sorry we missed you. Joe and I went to Millie Craig's visitation as we had a committment on Tuesday. Charlie was ok, but a bit tearful at times. We spoke with his daughters and some of their square dancing friends. He will be getting a lot of encouragement to return to the Tip.

We are now working on getting stuff packed up, (at least in my head I know what I am taking) and will be leaving the end of the month. Can't wait - summer was too hot and fall is too cold and rainy. Looking forward to 'windy' Texas.

Pat & Joe Horak

The day after Millie's funeral, Charlie was in a car accident. A woman ran a stop sign and broad sided him. He was taken to the hospital, but was fortunate to have only cuts and bruises. I had spoken to his daughter on Saturday and she said he was doing well. He was very sore, but thankful that nothing was broken.

Joy is anxiously awaiting her Check up at Mayo this next Monday and hopefully it will be good enough to head back to TX soon after that. Have a good week and as much as I hate to say it....send some warmer weather to Central Illinois. Guess I'll have to get my act together and head south. See you soon at the Tip. Pam
