It always seems like the closer it comes to leaving for TX, the busier I get. Today I found a leak in my furnace that was causing water condensation to drip on the floor, that caused particle board to swell and disintegrate, that caused the padding in the adjoining carpet to soak. Also the front of the furnace has rusted, etc. Would you believe I'm venting. Oh well, furnace man coming soon and the fan is on to dry things out. Guess looking for that silver lining, at least I caught the problem before I left for the winter.

Enough of that...Good news about Joy Ochs:

Joy had her eye appointment today and The pressure held low, so the Dr. Said we could head back to TX. Hooray, Hooray. We will pack up and probably leave here by the weekend, then make a few stops on the way and although we have no set arrival day be home soon.

After reading the minutes, you'll see that things are well underway at the Tip. We're missing out on the fun. Hope to see you soon...Pam
