Hello to All. Another beautiful day in South TX. We're expecting a little cool spell, but back in the 80's soon. You can tell the Holiday Season is here by the Christmas decorations going up around the Park.

I had a note from the Mitchells:

Hello to all our dear American friends (and some transplanted Canadians!!),

We wish you all a very wonderful Thanksgiving celebration tomorrow. We do have so much to be thankful for and one thing we are thankful for is having such good friends like you. May God bless you all and keep you safe and healthy. Our thoughts are with you all.

Love,
Mary and Don Mitchell

Howdy

I am sending this from my computer in Texas...Horray! Horray! Horray..... We arrived here last Sunday and I have been trying from morning till night to get ATT to connect us up to the internet.. Well I got soooooooooo frustrated I decided to cancel them out and now as of this morning (Wed) we are finally hooked up with "SmartCom" It took them about an hour to install their Antenna and cable and voila, we are up and running.

Take care

Rene

P.S. Our phone is also working and the number is.....  956-283-1667

We are still having beautiful weather in the mid to high 80s and sunny... I was in the hot tub this a.m. even before sunrise and it felt so good on the muscles and back after driving all those miles..

I received this Sunday from Dot Simon: SNOW.....

Had a 1 - 2 inch snowfall this morning—at least all the mud and leaves are covered. Would be a good day for skiing if we had about 50 more inches.

Just a note about the picture of Dan you sent several weeks ago. He looked just like a younger Richard Gere. I'm sure others have told you that, but wanted to add my two cents.

We are doing fine. Our new BFF, Pepper, has adjusted to us very well. She's a 7 year old rescue dog that has excellent house manners, but absolutely none on a leash. We're working on that—not sure who is going to win that battle.

Hope you're keeping the tennis courts busy. Miss all of you. Dot

Doesn't the thought of snow makes you have chills??? We miss you Lou and Dot

Have a good week...Safe travel if you're on your way down. Till later..Pam
