I'm home from a fun week with the Grandkids and we Grandmothers did survive!!! Someone asked if we had a good time. Our trips are not meant for Gwen and I to enjoy ourselves, but for our kids to have a great time and to make memories. Our enjoyment comes from watching them laugh and play together. So yes we had a hectic good time. Of course on the way home they were already asking where we would be going next year. We are open to any and all suggestions.

Thanks for the following notes from our Tip friends. Lois Ford wrote:

Going to nominate you for "Grandmother of the Year". Sounds like you had a wonderful time. I wish I had a grandma like you. Lol...we arrived home June 5th to rainy PA., it sure makes the grass grow. We drove the same amount of miles but somehow it seemed so much longer lol...we got to babysit our little grandson, what a joy he is:). Played tennis in our Senior Games, fun, but no medal haha..hope you continue to have a fun summer...thanks for the minutes. I look forward to them. Always like to hear about how our other family is doing:)

Take care,
 Lois and Carl Ford

Thanks Linda York for writing:

Hey, super Granny!! Sounds like you are living a lot of our dreams,lol. We will be heading north to Edmonton for a family get together and will see our grandkids. Our oldest -David (17yrs)who lives in town has a girlfriend so we another notch down on his priority list.He still likes to golf with thank goodness. My mom is doing well (Eilleen Baylis) She has all her yard work done and busy in her gardens. She heard from Pat Crimmins and they are well. Chuck is singing on the River boat again. All for now -been a busy spring and we finally have decent weather. Thanks for the news.
 Linda & Jim

We're so glad to hear your mother is doing so well. Please tell her we said Hello.

Gloria Reibling has written:

Hi Pam. Hope all is well with you. We are fine except for Ken's knee. It kept getting worse, so he now is on the waiting list to have a knee replacement done. Haven't heard yet when that will be. He is really missing playing tennis with the group here. He'll be glad when it is done.

We have been busy since we have been home. We seem to be always going to ball games or soccer games. We have 2 grandkids playing ball on different teams & 1 playing soccer. It keeps us on the go but that is o.k. as they grow up in a hurray.

. No other news for now. Take care & we'll keep in touch. Gloria & Ken.
