Well here it is the first of February and yes that silly ground hog saw his shadow. You know that means 6 more weeks of winter weather. I have to keep reminding myself how bad and cold central Illinois has been. Even so, we are getting tired of the chilly, dreary mornings, afternoons, and evenings. Let's hope the end of the week brings on the sunshine again.

I had a short note from the Guthrie's"

Hi toall our friends at TOT. I'm still waiting for my hip surgery. It had to be postponed because of infection . It is scheduled forFeb. 25. I'll surely be glad when it's over.

We wish you only the best, Joan.

Sad news...Richard Carlson passed away yesterday around 4 p.m. He had been in the hospital for a week or more. Wife Norma will go north with their daughter. I do not know of any details on the funeral.

Let's think Spring and warm weather. I know my disposition would get better. Have a good week. Pam
