Will try this again. Sorry about a blank message. I can't believe how the bottom dropped out of weather this evening. It was high 70's and dropped down to the 50's within a 20 minutes time. Oh how wish it would stay warm again for at least several days in a row.

Please take note that John Sluis is teaching line dancing only on Tuesday and not on Thursdays.

Not much more is happening. Have a good week.

Pam
