

Another nice day here at the Tip. Even though the mornings have been foggy and cool, the past few days have been great. Quite a change from the past few weeks.

Newly crowned queen, Delores Simpson dropped me this line:

Alice Souigny's daughter fell at Christmas and is having surgery to put in a complete plate and ball joint put in this week. Angela the Mary Kay lady at the craft sales the last few years found out she has stomach cancer that has gone into her liver and is under going chem but is still trying to sell her Mary Kay with a friend delivering.

we need to keep these two ladies in our prayers.

I did hear from a couple of dear friends that I'm sure many of you know.

Hi!

We miss you all and the park. Needless to say I am sitting here looking out at some snow and temp in the 20's/ So we are leaving to go on a cruise. Same places we went with all our wonderful Tip friends for years. No Bev or Glenn or the rest to enjoy all the fun, but with a great bunch of friends from home. We will be bussed to New Orleans and leave from there.

Spoke with a friend from home who is in Mission. So good to hear from her. Wish we could go on the shrimp boat with you, but don't think we can work it in this year. Good luck to all the wonderful actors in the tennis show. I hate not being a part of it. Great memories.

Marty and Bob Gawf

Let's hope this sunshine continues to bless the valley. Enough of the rain and cold. Of course we could be in Boston and all the snow, so we shouldn't gripe about a few 50 degree days.

Have a good week. Pam

Note from Lela Bishop:

I fell outside on the sidewalk last week and fractured my pelvic so I spent two nights in the hospital

my daughter and granddaughter have been here with me ever since. I walked a little in the hospital but now they have sent me home and told me not to walk at all. so am in the wheel chair but hope to be out of it soon. love Lela
