

MONDAY MORNING MEETING - March 23, 2015

Steve & Sue Graham Activity Directors

The park ensemble sang two songs to open the meeting. Directed by Nancy Belkie and accompanied by Mary Mitchell.

Pledge of Allegiance: Steve Graham

National Anthems: Paul Barcenas and Rene St. James

Al Septrion, Park Manager: Three more checks for bringing someone to our park were given out.

Please remember - no animals are allowed in park buildings.

Sue is going back to Houston for some tests and appt. with her Dr. She is still weak and doesn't eat much, but is in good spirits.

579 residents on 363 lots. To those leaving for their Northern homes, have safe travels and be sure to secure your units before you go.

Delores Simpson, Hospital Report: Several park residents are still having health issues. Larry Underwood is still in Legends.

Please keep them in your prayers.

The Church Board needs people for next season to set up chairs, Help in the kitchen and get the donuts.

The end of the driveway sale is Thursday March 26 from 8 - 12.

Donna Williams said a Prayer.

RESIDENT ANNOUNCEMENTS

Marilyn Strandberg --

Tuesday March 24th Shrimp Trip leaves at 8 AM. Set your alarm clocks! Bring your cooler so you can purchase shrimp to take home.

Our next 'not a trip' will be Monday March 23 at 4 PM in the main hall This will be a 'Coffee House' with entertainment. If you have a story, poem, song, or instrumental to perform, please sign up.

Bring your coffee mug.

If you bought security lights they need to be in direct sunlight for 3 days. This much time is needed to charge the batteries.

When you return next fall please bring things written, drawn, or built by your grand children to share with others.

If you buy Coca Cola in bottles that have a number in the cap, or the 12 packs of coke products with a number inside the end flap, please save them for me.

Joan Cuda -- on Wednesday March 25th a 'Thank You' party for Steve and Sue Graham as they retire and become regular park residents. 2 - 4 PM in the main hall

You can help by donating cookies

Pat Horak -- Mermaids meet today at 12 noon.

Mermaid Pool Party will be March 26th at 4 PM. Bring a finger food to share and your own drink. Ice tea will be available. The Mermaids will perform at 4:30.

Jana Fleming & Bill Sendlak -- Many thanks to all those who volunteered their time and talents to help make a special St. Pat's Day.

Next December we will be having an ugly Christmas sweater day. Be sure to bring yours with you.

Vinnie Lewandowski -- Lunch tomorrow at 11:30 - 12:30. $4

* Donna Williams -- Registration for a fall Bible Study (next season) will be held Wednesday at 9 AM. See Donna for more information.

Gail Stemple -- Easter Dinner: We need men to set up the tables at 10 AM right after church. Hostesses can decorate tables from 11:15 - 11:45. Social Hour at 11:45. Dinner served at 12:30

Art Edlund -- Tuesday will be the last day for class. We will clean up projects and put stuff away.

Joyce Ford -- A Canadian Happy Hour will be held on Wednesday at 4 PM at Lot 943 on Winter. We will discuss plans for our float for next year.

John O'brien -- We are working on having a park/ Police Dept. volleyball game.

* Mike Mata -- A reminder to secure your unit if you are leaving for the summer months. Also, be on the lookout for fire ants, bees and other insects that are coming out for the warm weather. Remember fire ants can kill.

GENERAL INFO WITH RENE ST. JAMES: Many thanks to the many people who attended our farewell party. We will miss the many friends we have made over the past 20 years.

STEVE'S ANNOUNCEMENTS:Thirsty Thursday this week will be at Denny's at 401 E. Nolana. Sign up on board. Meet at 4 PM.

An "END OF THE DRIVEWAY SALE" for residents only is scheduled for March 26 from 8 AM to noon.

Jazzercise will be at 10:30 this week.

CLR is finished for the season.

50/50 was won by Lot 927