Rain showers, AGAIN....But in the weather's defense, the high 80 temps are well welcomed. Even though we have complained about the rain.....The roadsides in South Texas are beautiful. Below is a picture taken of the prickly pear cactus taken just west of McAllen.

A big thank you to all who have taken the time to drop me a line. We all appreciate hearing that you had safe travels on your way home. The Stitlman's wrote:

We got home safely about 2PM today. It rained constantly on us yesterday... Mostly a hard rain but Sue Edgar stuck it out and rode out the storms Jim & I took the wrong turns several times in the towns where we stayed over night but Sue was behind us and followed us faithfully We are glad we are back to Illinois Carole and Jim

We got home from the Tip on Tuesday the 7th. On Wednesday night about 10:30 I took Chuck to the emergency room, he had really bad pain from his waist up to his shoulders and back. We thought it was his heart but turned out to be his gall bladder. He had surgery on Friday the 10th and got to come home the next day. He still doesn't feel well but it will take time. So glad it happened after we got home and not on the road. Tell all of our friends at the Tip that we miss them already. Carol SchnurpelContinued good luck to Chuck's recovery.....sorry to hear it was gall bladder....but much better than his heart.

Update on Dean Levendahl's heart surgery from daughter Cathy Walden:

Dad's coming home today. I might get to go home a little earlier than I thought. Hope your surgery goes well. Talk to you soon.

I hope I haven't forgotten anyone and their notes.

I do want to say, we're soooooo sorry to hear it is snowing in northern Michigan and through the upper states. It's only 87 today with the sun trying to peek through. Have a good week.

Almost forgot....having carpal tunnel surgery on right hand tomorrow so will probably send next week's
