Good morning from chilly Central Illinois. Well my surgery went much better than I was anticipating. Outpatient rotator cuff on right shoulder last Wednesday has postponed my migration south. After my doctor's appointment tomorrow, I can hopefully start making plans. They were able to use my own tissue to repair the tear, which is much better than having to do a more invasive procedure using a cadaver tendon. I may not be able to do a full overhead serve again, so all you tennis players take sympathy on me. I'm hoping to be back on the courts before Christmas.. Probably wishful thinking. I know all of you who have had surgery are just shaking your heads on that thinking. Anyway, I want to thank all of you for your prayers and concerns. I greatly appreciate your caring.

Sorry I haven't any other news for you. I know several of you are heading south. Remember to collect those little shampoo bottles and other give aways for the women's shelter. Safe travels to all and let us know of any news. I do know that Pat Horak is in second heaven now that the Cubs have won their division ship and on to the League Championship playoffs.

Have a good week.....Pam
