Good chilly morning from the Valley. Those of you still in the North, please keep your leftover damp and chills with you....We are already wearing hats and gloves. I know you have no sympathy for us after the snow and ice you have endured, but.

Activities are beginning in full force , so please take advantage and keep busy during this cool spell. Sorry, I haven't heard from any Tipsters.. so I will close with wishing you a good week. Remember to visit the Out Post and get your tickets for all the exciting upcoming events, (especially the Potato Bake on the 11th) Pam
