MONDAY MORNING MEETING MINUTES – March 28, 2016
Robert and Amanda McMasters -- Activity Directors

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

We have no new or returning residents. But a lot of you are going to your summer homes this week. Safe travels and return safely in the fall. Have a wonderful summer!

HOSPITAL REPORT: Delores Simpson Just a note: This is my last week at the Tip this season. Thanks to all who alerted me to those who are ill, having surgery, or passed away and those who should receive a Praise Report. Please send those notices to Dave Ochs, or Pat Horak by phone or e-mail.

Tom Janis is doing well in ReHab and should be home soon.

Lois Ford fell and broke her wrist in Mexico. She will receive a cast today.

Lois is asking for prayer for their son, who had a stroke.

LaVonne Lanus, Mother of Virginia VanAlstine, passed away.

Dean Underhill, a past resident, passed away.

Al Stemple is having knee surgery today.

Dave Sauter will have gall bladder surgery on April 6.

Bert Dewey is doing well, but will be a Legends for a while longer.

PRAISE REPORT:

Sue Seprion does have a break in her ankle, but is now in a walking boot, off several of her meds and LOOKING GOOD!

Bill and Jackie Roll, past residents, recently celebrated their 72nd Anniversary yesterday.

Shirley Beider is home and doing well.

When you leave for the summer: Any unopened or non perishable food can be taken to the Strandberg's lot 314 and put on the porch. These will to the food pantry.

Any already opened foods, frozen, or refrigerated food can be taken to the Workers to be distributed to them.

PRAYER: Pastor Robertson has returned to their summer home. Delores Simpson offered the prayer. - Prayer is needed for all those ill or recovering and those who lost loved ones.

PARK MANAGER REPORT: Al Septrion 531 residents on 310 sites. Please be sure to secure your unit when returning home. Safe travels to those leaving this week.

LOST & FOUND items are piling up. Please check in the main office if you are missing something.

Many thanks to all those who made Easter Dinner so delightful.

RESIDENT ANNOUNCEMENTS

Mary Kitkowski Left Over Dinner will be at 4 PM this evening.

Soup Supper is postponed until Sunday April 3 @ 4:30.

Bonnie Lynch DVD donations to the Movie collection are very welcome. A new list is being made up and will be available Monday.

Carlton Cummins The La Trinidad United Methodist Church is having a Chicken Dinner Benefit for the food Pantry. The cost is $7. Please order today if possible. The Church will deliver them to the park at 12 PM on Saturday 4/2.

Marilyn Strandberg Starting Sunday April 3 we will be leading a group to Cowboy Church every Sunday until we leave. Please meet at the flagpole at 10:15 so we can carpool. Parking is limited at the church. After church we will go to the Cortez Hotel in Weslaco for lunch.

Lap swimming award pins were given to Sue Anderson and Janice Noranbrock for completing 25 miles of laps.. Marilyn received her 50 mile pin and the Sullivan's are working on 100 miles. Great Job Everyone.

Linda York I apologize for the Recycling area being closed this weekend. Facility was closed for the Easter Holiday and we could not take our overflowing bins to them. As soon as the bins are returned today the area will once again be open to receive your recycling.

ACTIVITY OFFICE ANNOUNCEMENTS

Please return your activity forms to our office. The calendar for next season is being made.

Those who led an activity and have receipts to be paid, or a money box, please return them to our office.

Breakfast on Saturday are now finished. Many thanks to Vinnie and Faye for their work on this activity.

Our numbers are going down so, beginning next Monday please all sit on the outdoor pool side of the hall and toward the front.

A note from your MMM Typist. Our numbers are down, activities are slowing down or stopping for the season, and it is 10:30 and I'm ready to send this out. HAVE A GREAT SUMMER TO ALL WHO ARE LEAVING!

Wood shop 50/50 goes to lot 532.
