MONDAY MORNING MEETING MINUTES – April 4, 2016

Robert and Amanda McMasters -- Activity Directors

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

We have two new residents. The Kirklands from Central Illinois. A lot of you are going to your summer homes this week. Safe travels and return safely in the fall. Have a wonderful summer!

HOSPITAL REPORT: Delores Simpson Just a note: This is my last week at the Tip this season. Thanks to all who alerted me to those who are ill, having surgery, or passed away and those who should receive a Praise Report. Please send those notices to Dave Ochs, Pam Brown or Pat Horak by phone or e-mail.

Sherrie Dickey was taken to the hospital Saturday morning. Her condition is being monitored for infection.

Tom Janis is home.

Bob Kunselman, Stu Kunselman's father and long time resident of the park, passed away. Funeral is being postponed until July. Obituary is on the Church Board.

When you leave for the summer: Any unopened or non perishable food can be taken to the Strandberg's lot 314 and put on the porch. These will go to the food pantry.

Any already opened foods, frozen, or refrigerated food can be taken to the Workers to be distributed to them.

PRAYER: Pastor Robertson has returned to their summer home. Delores Simpson offered the prayer. - Prayer is needed for all those ill or recovering and those who lost loved ones.

PARK MANAGER REPORT: Al Septrion 141 residents on 89 sites. I am checking these numbers as they don't seem correct.

Tom Ever's bike was stolen from their lot on Cactus. Please watch for a Towner Bike. A police report has been made.

Please be sure to secure your unit when returning home. Safe travels to those leaving this week.
