Good Morning from?????? I have to stop to remember just where we are. Friend Pete and I left July 4th for a Western Road trip and have visited many beautiful sites. Started in Branson, visited the wonder of the Paro Duro Canyon in the Pan Handle, on to Carlsbad Caverns, saw the red rock of Sedona, to Saguaro National Park, up to the Petrified Desert, and now visiting friends in Fort Defiance, AZ. Temps have ranged as high as 106* in Tucson....but it was a "Dry Heat." It is still HOT.

It's been great and looking forward to Colorado and the northern route back to the mid west.

Haven't heard from anyone...so that' it for this week. Wishing everyone a safe, healthy, enjoyable week. Pam
