Good Monday to you. I was thinking our Midwest humidity was coming to an end this week, but that's not happening. Hot and humid with heat index in the triple digits.

I did receive a nice note from the Olson's:

Just letting you know that I will have right knee replacement on August 16th, here in Cape Girardeau, Mo. I have had trouble with my knee since last Fall, so time to get it corrected. Otherwise, Lee and I are doing o.k. We miss all our friends at the Tip and all our many years there. I have sold my violin because of an injured shoulder, and planning on selling my accordion soon. Take care and we always enjoy receiving and forwarding the MMM.

Blessings,
Mary Olson

It's sad to think Mary will no longer grace us with her Violin music. We will say a prayer for a successful knee surgery on Aug. 16th.

Remember to take pictures of your summer activities for the Our Town. Sorry to say I haven't heard for any one else, so I'll close for now. Keep cool and have a good week. Pam
