Brrrr. Hello from still under the covers. I had a chance to return to Central IL for a few days and I thought I would check on my mother, Rose Ann Hancock. I had trouble sleeping last night due to the continuing need for more warmth. After putting on long underwear, socks, and adding a quilt to the bed, I was able to get some sleep. Maybe it was due to the fact that I was so weighted down I couldn't move. If you wonder why we spend our winters in South Texas, just return to the gloomy, damp, sunless, cold North. It doesn't take one long to wish all family and friends Merry Christmas and head back to the Tip.

There are a few things I want to bring to your attention.

Lois Ford recently lost her dear husband, Carl. Several have asked for her address since their sympathy cards have been returned. The old pictorial does have the wrong unit number. Correct address is 101 East Sioux Road #1088, Pharr, TX 78577.

Due to the absenteeism of a couple of cooks (namely Trish and I), Wednesday morning breakfast will only be serving Biscuits and Garvey and drinks on this Wed. (tomorrow) and next week, Dec. 14. Please note.

I also want to thank all of the volunteers who will be helping Bonnie on this Friday's Potato Bake. I, or We appreciate all who are taking up our slack due to my absence and Bonnie's knee problem. A Big Thank You. Don't forget that ticket sales end on Wednesday.

The Recycling Volunteers are in need of a couple more dedicated residents who would like to help with the Park's program. This would entail taking responsibility of checking on the bins one day a week. Please check with me at 929 Desert, 217/251-3435, or reply to my e-mail if you'd like to help us out.

Stay warm and enjoy your sunny weather. Pam
