

Good morning:

Beautiful weather here in South TX, but then again, it seems that the northern Midwest is also enjoying some warm unseasonable days. That being said, we will not rub it in that we're enjoying high 80's to low 90's.

First good news from Mary Olson:

I am doing good from my rt. shoulder replacement surgery on feb. 7th. get the stitches out tomorrow. have a padded sling for 8 weeks.

lee is taking good care of me ....dressing me, changing my bandage every day and anything else that I need. thanks for all your prayers. sure do miss everyone at the TIP.

Mary, we miss both you and Lee. The Orchestra is playing this evening and I'm sure they, too, miss you and your talent.

Please keep Merle and Marian Thompson in your prayers. Merle is making small steps towards recovery, but has such a long way to go. Your prayers and cards of encouragement are very helpful and appreciated.

Have a good week. Pam
