Pam's Notes

*Good Morning: *

*If you happen to be in a damp, chilly part of the country, just extend your winter season and migrate back to the Tip. It reached 111* this past week and weathermen have predicted 5 out of the 7 day forecast to be 100* with the other 2 days to be 96-98. There is a silver lining.....the outside pool has been repaired and painted and refilled and ready for use. At least mother nature has saved on the heater bill. And for all of you year-around-residents, since it's still June and the BEGINNING of summer....you'll soon have a huge hot tube to soak your aches and pains away.*

*

*We want to remind all summer travelers to confiscate your hotel's freebies and then remember to bring them to the Tip in the fall. *

Pam, when you are looking for something to add to the MMM. You might remind residents to save the mini toiletries as they travel for the women and children shelter in McAllen. Thanks. Betty Mauck

*Please keep Bill, Betty, and their son in your prayers as you will note in the minutes!!!*

*

Several have asked for Don Olson's address to send condolence cards. The address listed on obituary was not deliverable. I have contacted the church where the funeral service was held and the secretary stated that cards and letters could be sent to her. She would make sure Don received them. Don's wife, Nyleen, recently passed. First Presbyterian Church, P.O.Box 247, Anboy, MN 56010.*

*

I just received this note from Steve Eikenhorst:*

Just had four kidney stones shattered today *(Monday)* with lithotripsy sound waves in Lincoln today. There's better things to do on a Monday morning but it's better than a kidney stone attack. Steve Eikenhorst

*Wishing Steve a quick recovery!!*

*Have a good week.....Pam*
