Monday Morning Minutes - October 9, 2017

Pledge Allegiance to the flag

Introduction of Trish and Steve Moore, new activity directors

Hospital Report

- Marliss Mustonen is at Las Palmas on "L" Street and would like to have visitors.
- Floy Kilgore has a blood clot on her lungs and has been hospitalized since last Friday.
- Norma Pepe (past resident) is in hospice in California

Praises

- Ruth Golding is doing well in Maine and misses the Tip.
- Sherry Gillem led us in prayer.

Al Seprion, park manager, reported 186 residents on 123 sites. Sixteen residents came in the past week.

- Marilyn Strandberg has resigned as bus trip coordinator. She is still doing "Our Town" and needs all articles in by October 23.
- Joyce Sauter will start Tai Chi on Wednesday, October 11. The instruction is on DVD and will take place on Monday, Wednesday and Thursdays at 9:00.
- The volunteer board has been moved to the Main Hall and there are lots of vacancies to be filled. Please check it out and volunteer if you can. The Golden Age Olympics board has been moved to the post office area next to the sewing room.
- The hall has been decorated for Halloween. Thanks to Johnny D and Theresa for a job well done.
- Johnny D will be playing classic country (1980's) and oldies (rock and roll) for Happy Hour on Mondays at 4:00. Concession stand will be open. Donation only.

Miscellaneous notes

- Thirsty Thursday will be at the Republic of the Rio Grande
- See Steve Moore if you would like to check out a video after the meeting.
- Happy hour on Fridays will begin in November with Steven May.
- Karaoke on Friday nights at 6:00 with Dorothy Phillips
- Activity Book will be ready soon.
- Need bus driver and bus trip coordinator.
