Pam's Notes

*I had a senior moment last week and pushed the send button before I had a chance to add any notes. *

* To begin with I had a note from Linda York with a couple of pictures.*

This is some of the family having Thanksgiving pizza at Jim's rehab center and out on the grounds during our daily walk. He is still making steady progress. The goal is for him to come home using a walker by Nov. 23. He is getting lots of physio and occupational therapy during the week but is pretty bored on the weekends. Thank you for all your kind thoughts and encouragement. Miss you all.

*Hoping the two pictures come through. It is good to learn that Jim is doing well and improving. Prayers for both of them.*

I would like to express thank you for the cards and phone calls from my TOT friends.

I have been inpatient at Rochester since Sept 27. They did a bone marrow biopsy Wed. It shows considerable improvement. Am having another biopsy done this .Wed to see what I show for blasts. Possibly more chemo. My skin is all broken out in red blotches. Reaction to chemo or meds. They salve me all over and wrap in warm wraps face included. I have the wraps on for 3 hours per treatment. So far I have had 5 treatments. Getting blood and platelets. I will be here for some time yet. Daughter ,Denise, coming up Oct 16 for a few days. VIRGINIA VAN ALSTINE. can give out info at mmm

*I would like to remind all to save the small hair products, soap, etc from your hotel stays on your way to the Tip. Betty Mauck collects these items for the Women's shelter. *

*I am sure Trish and Steve, activity directors, would love to hear from you if you would graciously volunteer to help with any activity listed below. Their e-mail is *activitiesofficetot@gmail.com <<http://gmail.com>>**

*If all goes as planned, I should be leaving IL early next week. Since the weather is getting cooler, I am looking forward to the TX heat. If you are in transit, please travel safely and hoping to see you soon. Pam*
