Monday Morning Minutes
02/19/2018

Meeting called to order by Lavon Walters

Pledge, USA and Canadian Anthems.

DeLores Simpson (Hospital Report:

- Henry Scheibl was taken to the hospital on Monday and came home on Friday. He is very weak.
- Louise Chase is in a different hospital at this time doing blood transfer taking plasma from her blood and putting in new plasma. She is very content there.
- Pat Horak is having a surgical injection this morning into the tail bone for relief of pain.

DeLores has vials available for residents.

Pastor Robertson led us in prayer.

Al Seprion, park manager, reported 613 residents on 355 sites. Please do not park next to the mail truck as it makes it difficult for the mail person to unload packages. The pictorials will be sold for $5.00 after all those who had their pictures taken pick their books up.

Maggie Mae: Our VERY OWN RESIDENT, Maggie Mae, won FEMALE VOCALIST OF THE VALLEY. She shared her trophy with the group.

Blood pressure will be taken after the MMM.

Jeannice Walters: We would prefer that no notices be posted on the glass doors. We have a beautiful park and this takes away from that image. It will also eliminate bumps and bruises that some people have received due to lack of visibility. Gracanne Powell is in charge of the bulletin boards so please take your information to the Activity Office and let Gracanne post it on the board. Please let the office know if you are aware of Jason's hours for massages.

Lavon Walters: Kitchen news for this week:

- Lunch Tuesday 11 to 1,
- Breakfast Wednesday Biscuits and Gravy
- Wednesday before the dance: hot dogs and hamburgers
- Saturday morning-pancakes and sausage

Mary Kitkowski: Up and down the river annual dinner this coming Saturday. Please call Mary for reservations.

Thursday is lap robe day in the sewing room.

On Sunday at 2:00 pm there will be a celebration of OnaLee's 90th birthday as well as a farewell to Virgie Tomasek who is leaving the park after 35 years. OnaLee has been here for 40 years and is still going strong!

Phyll Thackery (Golden Age Olympics): Park won 15 medals this week for a total of 57.

Next week is the final week. Dance party, cheer team next week. Last group event this year.

Walk and Talk is Wednesday at the McAllen Nature Center located on Business 83 west of Ware Road on the left. Don't forget to bring 2 cans of food to donate to the Food Bank. You can enroll on site if you have not already registered. Map is on the bulletin board.

Racewalk is Saturday at Sharyland High School. This is different than what is printed in the brochure. Map on the bulletin board. We have at least 4 new race walkers this year.

T-shirts: If you have not received your t-shirt and would like Phyll to pick them up for you, please contact her ASAP at 817-821-2212. –

Softball - please meet after the meeting this morning and practice at 12:30 if you are available.

Marilyn Bullington, Arts and Crafts:

The February Arts and Crafts show was a huge success. Thank you to everyone who helped to make this such a successful show. Your names will be posted in the March issue of "Our Town".

Next show is March 17.

Barb Chappell (Bus trips): Our next trip will be next Tuesday, February 27th, to visit SAS shoes in Brownsville. We will eat at Cobbleheads' Restaurant (pay your own tab). Seats are available.

Fun trips in March: Thursday, March 1, is the Riverside Boat Tour. We will go to the Riverside Club in Mission. After cruising down the river we will have a fantastic meal. The "Coins" will be playing great music to listen and dance to.

Check the schedule on the board and sign up for the trips you want to go on at the Activity Office.

Linda York, Showcase Chairman: Showcase will be at 2:00 on Monday, February 26 in the Main Hall. If you'd like to sign up, contact Linda.

Barb Hoff, First Responder: Lab results of your blood work are available in the Activity Office.

Review of lab tests will be on February 23, Friday at 10:00 a.m. in the Al Barnes Building.

Chuck Strandberg:

- Indiana/Iowa luncheon at Mr. Gatti's – 11:00 on Thursday. Lots of food and "corny" humor.
- Church news: we had a music group from the Rio Grande Bible Institute playing some captivating Latin beat music – very inspiring and put everyone in a good mood. The church has special music each Sunday. The board needs greeters to sign up on the church board. The choir will meet at 3:00 instead of 3:30 on Thursday.
- Jam Session (every Sunday at 6:30): Special guest Stevie Nelson (Maggie Mae's guitarist) and a welcome back to Pat Sinnott.

Ferris Dake, TOT Orchestra Concert: Please be sure to see the concert on Thursday at 6:30 in the Main Hall. The orchestra sounds wonderful.

Kay Lane, Challenge Fashion Show: Thursday, March 8 at 2:00. $6.50 tickets will be sold until March 5. Lunch by Alta. All money made will go to Sewing for Children, Soldiers, Veterans, Ronald McDonald cancer kids and Mary's lap robes. Marilyn Bullington won the black and white quilt.

John O'Brien, Photographer: He and John DeVaney have taken over 1,200 pictures this season. They are available on totfyi.com.

Linda Gillick, Singles: We will have a meeting this Wednesday at 4:30 p.m. in the Arts and Crafts Room. Chuck Srandberg will be our guest.

Sharon Branson and the 50th Anniversary Committee: Thank you to the wonderful couples who participated, Gloria Reibling for the piano prelude, Pastor Robertson for the blessing, John O'Brien for the pictures and video, Gary Dreibelbis for music and audio, Alta and her servers for the cakes and punch AND the anonymous donor of the ice cream served with the cake. The program is on the back bulletin board.

Red Hat Ladies: Meet Tuesday at 11:30 near the front entrance for those who signed up for the Bryan House in Mission.

Due to a conflict in schedules, Pan o'Steele will not be playing on 2/20. They have been rescheduled for next year.

BINGO – Tonight at 7:00 in the Main Hall. Cards go on sale at 6:30. Last week two players split the jackpot of $106.00.

Chili Cookoff: Congratulations to our new Master Chili Chef, Joy Ochs. Thanks for all the participants.

Pam Brown, Illinois Luncheon: Wednesday, March 7 at 11:00 a.m. in the Al Barnes Building. Please bring a dish to pass – Service and drink.

Barbara Horne, Blood Drive and Our Town: Blood drive on Wednesday, February 21 at 8:00 a.m. Free cholesterol screening will be done for those donating blood.

Deadline for "Our Town" is February 23, this Friday.

Bob McDougall, our marketing guru gave out prizes and the 50/50 was won by lot 445.
