Pam's Notes

Good rainy Tuesday morning from here at the Tip. I guess we can't (shouldn't) complain since we don't have to shovel the precipitation unlike some of our Tip family who already traveled North.

I hope I do not miss any of your notes that you've sent saying you have returned home.

This week I heard from the Hough's

Just a short note to tell you Bob and I made it home safe Monday around 7:30. Some of the kids and grandkids was there to help us unload. They had the house dusted and heat on for us. Hope you and Pete had a great time on your vacation. Take care. Bob and Alt

The Barry's

We arrived home safely in Iowa. The Blue Bonnets were just beautiful, and for miles and miles.

We have had snow twice since getting home, and it's snowing again today. Thank you for continuing to send out the MMM, we love to hear how our Tip Friends are doing.

Safely home—too soon! Too cold! Lois

There is a memorial service scheduled in IL for Don Moore. Below is the info:

Below is the information for the memorial service for Don. I appreciate you sending it out to everyone and it will be run again in the Peoria Journal Star.

Thanks
