Pam's Notes

Good Monday Afternoon from sunny, but chilly, Wisconsin. These Northerners think it's warm, but I still consider 60's cool, even the high 60's. I am thinking it's about time to head to the Tip. My blood does run thin.

I had a message from Lois and Gordie Skinner:

Will u have someone thank all the people at the tip for their thoughts and prayers. We will have her memorial mass on sat sept 15 for our beautiful daughter. Thanks
Lois

This is their thank you for all the prayers and concerns for the death of their daughter.

A note from Laura Deschamps:

We were sorry to hear of the loss of your Mother. We still enjoy your Monday morning notices, and we're looking forward to January to see you and Ann the nice people we've met at the tip, Art and I are getting married October 6, 2018, we are very busy right now with the dinner etc, . See you soon..Laura Congratulations Laura and Art.

Well....it's beginning to look fallish (Is that a word?) here in the Midwest. I am anxious to get to the Tip. I think we should all think about new activities that we could participate in this season. I know there is interest in Pickleball lessons...Are one of you able to give some pointers to beginners?? Also, there are a few new board games and/or card games being played. Bring your game or idea down and let's give it a try. Any new ideas are welcome. Put your thinking caps on and let the activities department know. Mr. Wilder is always wanting us to expand our list of activities. Let's not do it for him but for ourselves.

Have a good week. Pam
