

WELLFLEET - Miriam Winifred (Jones) McCormick, 98, of Wellfleet, MA passed away peacefully on Thurs., Aug. 14, 2014 at Hope Hospice Care Center in Sandwich.

She was born and raised in Manchester, CT and married her high school sweetheart, Robert McCormick. They spent a wonderful fifty-four years together before his passing in 1989. At the outbreak of World War II, Robert and his brother joined the Navy while Miriam sold war bonds at the post office. In a World War II tent, the family first started camping on Nauset Beach in the 1950s. Eventually buying property in Wellfleet, they built their permanent home on Cape Cod in 1970.

Miriam is survived by her two daughters, Barbara Thompson of Jarrettsville, MD and Kathleen McCormick of Wellfleet, MA. Her five grandchildren and four great grandchildren were able to spend time with her shortly before her passing.

At Miriam's request, there will be no funeral service. A private family ceremony will take place at the National Cemetery on Cape Cod. She wished a warm and loving farewell to all her PEO sisters in Chapter Q.

Donations in her memory may be made to: Hope Hospice, 765 Attucks Lane, Hyannis, MA 02601.

Source: Cape Cod Times