Peggy Julian Perkins was raised in Timpson, Texas, where she attended high school. After graduating from high school, she began her clerking career working at the Timpson train station at age 17. She then attended secretarial school in Houston, Texas, to further her career as a railroad rates clerk. Peggy joined the brotherhood of railroad clerks in 1945 and was a proud, card carrying union member for 37 years in the Lafayette Division of Southern Pacific Railroad, working in Lufkin, Port Arthur and Beaumont, Texas. She met the love of her life, Charles Norris Perkins on a blind-date in Lufkin. The two were married on February 23, 1951, spending more than 67 wonderful years together. While Peggy was an only child, she married into a family of ten brothers and sisters-in-law with numerous cousins, nieces and nephews which provided her with endless love, support and entertainment.

Upon retirement Peggy enjoyed spending time with family and church members, as well as spending winters in South Texas with their many fellow 'snow-bird' Winter Texans from around the country. Peggy traveled with her husband extensively around the US and Canada visiting extended family members and their many friends. She enjoyed sharing fond memories from their many journeys.

Peggy was an active member of First United Methodist Church in Timpson where she and her husband were the first couple married in this church 69 years ago. She also hosted weekly bible study at her home.

Peggy is survived by her sons, David Burnett Perkins and wife Michelle, James Calvin Perkins, William Hardin Perkins; grandchildren, Sarah Perkins, Johnathon Perkins, Hannah Perkins, Phillip Perkins; and a host of family and friends that will miss her dearly.
