

CAROL SHEPHERDSON

Carol Ann Cowan passed away on November 9, 2018 after a long and difficult battle with diabetes, cancer, kidney failure and other ailments.

Carol was born on June 26, 1940 on Timmins, Ontario and was raised by her adoptive parents, Margaret and Russell Cowan, in Timmins.

Carol's husband, Floyd Shepherdson and her family had a Celebration of Life service on November 22, 2018 at the Metropolitan Bible Church in Ottawa, Ontario. She was 78 years of age. Carol grew up and went to school in Timmins and did office work for several companies.

Carol was predeceased by her parents Russell and Margaret Cowan and is survived by one sister Audrey LeFeuvre and one brother Richard VanOdenbosch.

FLOYD SHEPHERDSON

Floyd William Shepherdson passed away on January 7, 2019 at the Ruddy Shenkman Hospice in Ottawa, Ontario, after being diagnosed with a brain tumor only a few days after the Celebration of Life for his wife Carol on November 22, 2018.

Floyd was born in Dymond Township on November 21, 1936, the tenth child of Ada and Wesley Shepherdson . Floyd went to elementary and secondary schools in New Liskeard and worked on the farm and in the logging and lumber business with his father and brothers for many years .When the farming and lumbering operations ended, Floyd became the owner of the Livestock Exchange and Sales arena and operated that quite successfully. In 1977 he accepted the position of clerk/treasurer in the Township of Dymond office until his retirement.

Floyd was predeceased by his parents Wes and Ada Shepherdson, five brothers; Eldon, Ray, Kenneth, Verdun and Morley and one sister, Charlene as well as his wife Carol.

He is survived by three sisters; Audrey (Ridley-98), Betty (Fielder-92) and Donna (Caldwell -78) and one brother Clair (86). They both leave behind their daughters Brenda and Kendra and their children.