

Donald J. Sinnott
September 23, 1930 - February 19, 2014
Resided in Burlington, IA -

Obituary

Donald J. Sinnott, 83, of Wapello, died at 1:25 AM Wednesday, February 19, 2014, at the Great River Hospice House in West Burlington.

Born September 23, 1930, in Burlington, he was the son of Stephen and Margaret Ciska Sinnott.

Don worked as a general manager for Knapp Chevrolet in Houston, TX, retiring in 1998.

He was a U.S. Air Force Veteran, serving during the Korean War from 1950 until 1954. He was stationed in Washington D.C.

He attended St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Columbus Junction. He enjoyed ballroom dancing, crossword puzzles and reading.

Survivors include two sisters, Kay Skipton of Wapello, IA, and Jeannine Morelli of Stow, OH, nieces and nephews, Karen Stewart, Lori Pohlman, Angie Ruth, Pam Bond, Tom Morelli, John Morelli, Robin Ackerman, Steve Sinnott, and Mark Sinnott; and several great nieces and nephews who were very special to Don.

He was preceded by his parents, and two brothers, Bill and Walter Sinnott.

Cremation has been entrusted to the care of Thielen Crematory.

There will be no visitation or services.

Burial will be at later date in Mt. Calvary Cemetery in Melrose, Iowa.

A memorial has been established to the Wapello Ambulance and Rescue Unit.

Source: Thielen Funeral Home, 3940 Division St., Burlington, IA 52601
<http://www.thielenfuneralhome.com/obituary?id=1345866#sthash.tot4m1TM.TYZgDfWw.dpuf>

